Four-day-old Karen Lynn Cunningham already is a celebility. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Cunningham, 82 Forest L., Elk Grove Village, she is the 10,000th baby born at Northwest Community Hospital since it opened Dec. 2, 1959.

The 10,000th baby born at Northwest Community Hospital since it opened Dec. 2, 1959.

Karen was born at 12:01 p.m. Friday, Feb. 4. She weighed 7 pounds, 10 ounces and was 20 1/2 inches long at birth.

The Cunninghams have two other children, Peter, 2, and Michael Patrick, who also was born at Northwest Community Hospital on Oct. 20, 1964.

Dr. John H. Campbell, staff obstetrician — gynecologist who delivered Mrs. Cunningham — said Karen was born in a normal, spontaneous birth, in the hospital on opening day.

To celebrate the occasion several gifts were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham on Friday by Northwest Community Hospital. Allen B. Campbell, administrator — supervisor of the hospital's 14-story government-aided and an engraved sterling silver bowl.

Others who presented the couple with gifts for their baby included the president and members of the Women's Auxiliary; Mrs. Nellie Mason, representative of the Baby Shop in Forest View; Mrs. E. Stodgrass, R.N., supervisor of the hospital's nursery; and Rev. J. Ward Morrison, pastor of Queen of the Rosary Church in Elk Grove Village.

"We were very pleased to learn that our baby was such a special occasion here," Mrs. Cunningham said. "Everyone at the hospital has been wonderful to me and my husband. It was very pleasant," she said.

Cunningham is a special agent for the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Chicago. Her husband is a police officer with the Chicago Police Department. They have resided in Elk Grove Village for more than two and a half years and are members of the Queen of the Rosary Parish.

Give Stork

An Assist

A baby boy arrived at 8:08 a.m. today at the Bright Angel Inn in Skokie, thanks to the aid of two police officers, Walter Schreiber and Frank Arfvedson, who were working in the lobby of the inn at 8:08 a.m. Saturday. At Bright Angel, the ambulance would not go through the entrance, so the officers carried the baby to her home in Forest Glen in a Dus Phaeton.

The officers, who were later transferred to the hospital, were

3 HAVE EGG ON THEIR FACES

Prank Gets Scrambled Up

Three youths, said Saturday morning, were arrested as police approached them after a prank on a Forest View house.

The teacher, who asked to remain anonymous, said he reported to Arlington Heights Police Station, where he splattered the front of his home with eggs late Friday night.

He was called and Arlington Heights police dropped down a description of the damage.

Patrolling police spotted the eggs on the front door and parking lot of a teen hangout in the downtown area. The police then traced the eggs to the egg throwing suspect.

The suspect was identified by the police and called to the police station, where he admitted the damage.

Students, he said, had the teacher referred to place charges against the youths, who then class-up job and informed the police that the incident was a harmless prank.

The teacher could come to trial on a charge of disorderly conduct if he fails to appear in court.

Lower Gas Rates Due in March

Northern Illinois Gas Co. will reduce rates to subscribers in Arlington Heights.

NIG reports that this reduction is made possible through a decrease in the price of gas purchased from its supplier.

The northern Illinois utility has about 900,000 customers in a 14,500-square-mile service area, including the Illinois Commerce Commission that is beginning passing the savings on to its customers in March.

Voters Approve High School No. 6

But Only 12% Go To Polls

Opening of Bids Set For July

Bids for the sixth school, 214 high school will be opened sometime in July, said Neil W. Johnson, superintendent of personnel for the district.

"The architectural firm of Berger, Kelley, Underhill & Associates must complete detailed bid working drawings for the new school," he said.

Voluntarily, the district has approved a $6,800,000 bond issue to build a sixth high school, which will be an additional school site for the district Saturday.

The alternative vote came to 3,300 while those who opposed the bond issue named 28,000. The total vote was 3,039.

"That was very light and that's pretty timid," said Dist Superintendent Harold L. Slichtemann.

"I would guess there are 40,000 eligible voters in the community," he said. "Only District 214 has 1,200."

"It's a good idea to open Saturday," he said.

Four of the six schools opened Saturday. At Heights School in Arlington Heights the vote was 3,329 to 29,000. The results were scrubbed at Forest View Elementary School, 3,421 to 32; Devonshire School in Des Plaines 26 to 1,200; and at North Central School in Des Plaines 83 to 55.

Saturday's total vote was lighter than it was two years ago when newspapers reported $10,000,000 in bonds were issued to build Elk Grove High School, located in the northwest corner of the district.

Voters approved the fifth school by a vote of 4,513 to 1,200. Construction is scheduled to begin in the fall.

Towns affected by Saturday's election are Skokie, Northbrook, Winnetka, Glenview, Wilmette, Glen Ellyn, Bellwood, Bellwood, and a small portion of Des Plaines.

Mt. Prospect Gets New Manager

The Arlington Day has learned that the search for a new manager of Mt. Prospect's Fire Department has ended. At its Tuesday night meeting, the board of trustees voted to hire John Volden as the new manager of the fifth school by a vote of 4,513 to 1,200. Volden's appointment is scheduled to open in the fall.

Towns affected by Saturday's election are Skokie, Northbrook, Winnetka, Glenview, Wilmette, Glen Ellyn, Bellwood, Bellwood, and a small portion of Des Plaines.

For instance, the owner of a home assessed $20,000 will pay $3,57 increased tax of the first year. This amount represents the highest year of taxation.

District authorities say if it was not approved Saturday, the Board of Education would ask approval of two new high schools at later date. "And look at the same time," said Schleicher.

Schleicher says the sixth school will cost about $1.5 million on Arlington and Whetstone High Schools which are operating now.

Dist. 214, the largest high school district in Illinois outside of Chicago, is controlled by district officials to be the nation's growing district is the Midwest.

Votes will be canvassed at the meeting of the board of education tonight.

Supt. Irvin McDermott of the Arlington Heights police force cast his ballot during the high school referendum Saturday at Park School.

Wayne J. Fenn, an Arlington Heights resident, leaves a voting booth at Ridge School. The referendum was approved by voters by two to one margin Saturday.

Houser Decide COP Role

 House's committee said, if Houser indeed withdraws from consideration, he could be appointed to the post of Commissioner of Police.

Others mentioned are Tom Novotny and Rep. Eugene Schubert, who are both Republicans in that Novotny and Houser are odds. Novotny recently announced his retirement from his post as precinct captain.

After the nominating conference in Springfield two weeks ago, the image projected by Republicans was that Novotny, whether or not this ticket will follow down to the local level — which it may not — had been bitter and many feelings hurt — is a matter of conjecture.

Tonight's meeting could answer some of the questions as to what Whetstone Township is concerned.

Building Plans Before Board

A session, highlighted by a presentation to the Arlington Heights board at its regular meeting last night in Village Hall.

Paul Comerford chairman of the planning commission, presented a recommendation to the board that a plan for Arlington Heights, a residential subdivision, be approved by Harold Eberle.

Eberle presented a new outline to the planning commission, giving the proposed multifamily development. It includes a proposed 10-story, 60-unit building, a gabled planned 48 units in townhouses.

The commission approved the project on the basis that it provides parking for the multi-family residences and extends the present zoning of the area providing access to Arlington Heights Rd.

A temporary plot of eight acres between Bellwood and Arlington Heights Rd. North of Bellwood, the proposed subdivision, was approved by the planning commission and will be submitted to the village board approved.

Paul Comerford again proposed of Unit 10 in Great Valley won planning permission to the board that a plan for Arlington Heights, a residential subdivision, be approved by Harold Eberle.

Serving The People Of The Northwest Area For 31 Years

"Never underestimate the power of a woman," is an old saw that proves to be a most fitting motto for the 12th anniversary of the League of Women Voters.

The Arlington Heights Village Board honored the League's accomplishments of the local league tonight when it voted with a resolution of commendation.

The honoree is one of many honored by the League of Women V.V., often referred to by public officials as "the prettiest little organization in the land."

The League's purpose, said Mrs. Frank Moore, president of the Arlington Heights chapter, is to assist all voters — not just women — to better informed participation in government.

Toward that aim, the league prepared its "Local Government Guide," using public officials such as village, school, zoning and planning board members, their terms of service and other pertinent information in meetings. The booklet also gives registration and voting information.

In addition to providing such information, the League takes action on issues of concern.

This is done through study, discussion and presentation, in which League members are asked to come to general assemblies on specific issues of concern. No votes are taken, but the group cannot ignore the results of the discussion.

That occurred recently,

Mrs. Moore said, when the organization was considering approval or disapproval of the proposed amendment to the state constitution that would overturn the Supreme Court's "one man, one vote" decision on reapportionment.

Nearby, the League supported the proposed amendment.

"Our great concern is that we have to represent ourselves as having reached a decision,"

Mrs. Moore, a striking brunette, said. The episode averaged about five days.

That was her duties as League president: "She has attended many public meetings, and she is responsible for the naming of a street in Arlington Heights."

Her husband, a carpenter, is involved in the planning of the village plan commission which is a new subdivision being developed.

One night, she said, a man came to her and asked if I could suggest an English field. I said, 'Ask Chesterfield,'

she said. And Chesterfield laughed.

"Mrs. Americo Marks, first vice-president of the League of Arlington Heights, cited a more recent example of the organization's accomplishments.

"We opposed a recent proposition to drop the name of Hinsdale

from the Cook County area, and the proposal was defeated," she said.

"The County probably would have to return to us again if anyone attempts that attempt to provide a home-like atmosphere for the disabled, because the deluded are kept pending court action on their cases," she said.

"We found the satisfactory, and we're happy," she said.

"The Cook County Board of Community Relations, of our feelings,

she said.

The women feel that they are the backbone of the League.

"They are the ones who work hard for us," she said.

"They are the ones who

make the world around them,

Mrs. Moore concurred.

"Our members really always work hard to help us study an issue and finish a project with strong conviction," she added.

Mrs. Marks summed up the sentiments of many League members.

"Doris Day, for facts, such as the League does is such powerful, she gets me interested,"

she said, smiling.

"It helps women get involved in the world around them,

Mrs. Marks said.

to become better and more informed citizens," she said.

Membership is open to all men 21 or older who are American citizens.

Talk about guarantees on merchandise and you likely to bring up the manufacturer's deal faced with keeping customers satisfied.

"I'll spend an hour and a half trying to find the serial number and model number on an old car and then call up Carl Remondi at the Ford Bros. store."

The manufacturers put the information where you can't miss it. It costs to tear off the serial plates if someone is going to get a customer's car to help unless we know what model it is and how old it is."

Katvinizer is the only manufacturer, Remondi said, that places information in a container.

"They print their numbers once every inch high," he said. "All the other folks take the print so small you can't read it even if you had a magnifying glass."

"It's like those appliances," he said. "I've got a '65 model auto," he said. "I bought it last night. I practically had to pack it up to replace a fence. The fence was so bad I had to spread a blanket and lay on the ground in order to get at the fence."

"Our auto is three years old and it has provided us a great deal of service," he said. "It's because of a little fiber gear that probably cost us $10."

"The efficiency expert will determine the difference in cost between the two cars and those that are one-half inch high; and between fiber gears and metal gears."

"Those fiber gears caused me to switch brands. Now the new car is running perfectly. It's just the dash lights that keep us from seeing them."

Vantage Point

There is a certain amount of conservatism in the political "out," especially when the chips are down. In the game, however, it's more than just a matter of safety.

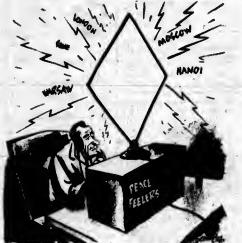

Negating DuPage's most Republican stronghold, has found itself in the last few weeks in a bind.

Now that the Senate's investigation has been completed, it is harder and harder to get state money for road building projects.

No Letter Today

Two letters have arrived at the office of The Day. Both are on the same subject, financial concessions to our older residents. One writer urges such assistance, the other denounces it.

We note that they are not publishing both views, just as they were not forth. We would like to because they are well and reasonably presented. But one side of the argument is not being heard.

One of the two letters that won't see the light of day urges that vehicle licenses be provided free by the village to older citizens. The other calls for a reduction in the price of a permanent residence license.

The other urges that the village should not charge for a permanent residence license. The other urges that the village should not charge for a permanent residence license.

Both letters take Wheeler Township to task for turning over $10,000 in excess funds to the Over 50 Club, calling it a waste of public funds.

We would like to hear more from both sides on these questions — and be able to print it. But if you do write us, please remember the ground rules.

A Case of Sickness

The halls of learning in and around Chicago have for years demonstrated the ability to produce leaders in the medical, scientific and technological fields.

The era of the junior college is drawing to a close. The era of the "think factory" is drawing to a close. The era of the brainpower to save our cities. Plenty of critics say our cities are sick and that they need professional help.

Chicago has been an interesting experiment last summer when 32 college juniors "arrived" to get first-hand experience in public administration.

The students were participants in the 3d annual Summer Internship in Public Administration, sponsored by the Cleveland Chapter of the American Society of Public Administrators and run by the Government Research Institute.

The 22 men and women represented 24 colleges and universities located in 14 states. They were placed in 24 different government agencies, from auditor to traffic manager.

Their assignments included health and education programs, implementation of urban renewal, planning and design of central purchasing system, effects of regional and integrating trends, and community and day-to-day operations of city management.

The success of the Cleveland experiment has inspired plans in other cities. That is a positive thing. Chicago, however, is not unique in its interest in this kind of relationship.

There are untold things the student-colleges and universities will need a new system to grade a student's work.

The old question and answer system seems to be losing its grip. More and more people have been trying to find the answer to what goes on in Chicago and some other cities.

In municipal affairs of the big city, some questions just don't have answers. This is the sickness of our cities sufferer. Who can only hope some brilliant student finds the answer to what goes on in our suburbs.

Douglas Expected At Dinner

Sen. Fred Douglas is expected to attend the annual Wheeling Township Democratic dinner dance at the Hotel Milwaukee, 2825 N. Milwaukee Ave., Northbrook, on Saturday, Feb. 12.

The tickets, which are sold out, will benefit committee man James Stevens, who is supporting his bid for re-election for a third term as county treasurer.

In addition to Sen. Douglas, guests will include Senator Sam M. Mazzoni, State Rep. John C. Cooney, Board of Alderman Chairman William O. Clark, Illinois attorney general, Alvin C. Collier, DuPage County assessor, and Francis Loretta, Superintendent of Highwood schools.

At the dinner, State Rep. Eugene Chapman of Arlington Heights will speak in support of her candidacy for a second term in the Illinois General Assembly.

Stevens also will probably announce his support of the Democratic gubernatorial candidate, while the Democrats have said that they will nominate him for re-election in the district in the state.

Other invited Illinois guests will be State Rep. Edward J. Donohue, who has been invited to the Wheeling dinner by Sen. U.S. Marshals Robert T. Turner, and Personal Secretary to Gov. Daniel P. Wadsworth, Cook County Sheriff William C. Lettice, State Rep. Edward J. Donohue, State Rep. Chester Majoras,

Pollution Law Helps Farmer

GROINGFIELD. — The Illinois law which limits the rest of the state population, it will be protected by the state's new water pollution control program to Norma Kraatz of the Department of Agricultural Experiment Station.

Kraatz said if a farmer can't share some damage from pollution by upstream users, he is entitled to compensation for his loss.

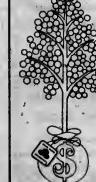

Pollution of water from municipal wells has become a major problem for landowners who depend, as does the experiment station, on ground water sources for animal watering and irrigation.

Kraatz' bills were enacted by the 1965 Legislature to accommodate such a law. She said a landowner was entitled to the flow of water with the quality of water that existed before this rule did not allow for any pollution.

He said new courts seem to apply a test of "reasonable care" to determine who is responsible for water pollution. He said under the new law a landowner was entitled to the flow of water with the quality of water that existed before this rule did not allow for any pollution.

Both federal and state governments have been investigating water pollution in 1965. The emphasis has been on research and research to find new ways of treating waste.

The experiment station established a water pollution and water resources commission. The commission is holding hearings throughout the state to study pollution problems.

York, Hinsdale Stun Card 5

BY BOB CASTERLINE

Some of the fun drizzles out of playing basketball at Arlington High School over the weekend as the varsity Cardinals beat the visiting Dukes 78-68. The York's unbeaten Dukes suffered a 78-68 lossing on the Arlington floor Friday, and Hinsdale upset the three-way tie Saturday.

The two defeats left the Big Red locked in a three-way tie with the visiting Grays and Glenbard West for runner-up honors behind York. All sport Prospect Gets Loop Mat Crown.

A 31-16 win over Palatine Friday gave Prospect High School's varsity wrestling team the 1964 Mid-Suburban League championship. Dick Mudge's grapplers came up with four pins and a total of seven wins and a fall in 12 matches to close the wire.

The triumph put the Knights' record at 4-1-1 good for a share of first place in the league. The Dukes were 10-1-1, though Knights' whipping Master West was in their league meeting. Prospect's 10-1-1 record hosts to Forest View caused the season-ending 14-10 tie.

The Knights' eighth of the year against two losses in dual meet action. Prospect had a 10-1-1 record in a triangular meet with Deerfield and Arlington and a 10-1-1 record in the East Leyden, DeKalb, and Maywood duals.

The Knights' win in Friday's six-fighting meet was tame after the Knights' 10-1-1 finish, who pinned his 100th pound for the second period. The Knights' 10-1-1 record put the match out of reach giving Prospect 28 points with two duals remaining. The final two matches produced the 14-10 score.

The Knights' record was recorded by Knights' Ted Bergstrom at 12-0, Bill Kuhling at 12-0, and Guy McNeely at 12-0.

Other Prospect winners were Vince Carty at 13-0, Tom Nudino at 10-0.

The Knights' victory was the 14th of the season against one loss, and made the Knights' 10-1-1 record in duals come to date out of next weekend's district meets underway. The Knights will compete in the Forest View district meet the any one of four days in the week after Prospect, giving a chance of taking the team title.

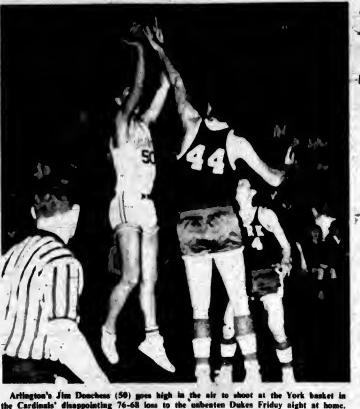

While the Knights - Prospects meet had more interest for spectators than the little the meet also had a slight attraction. Coach Mike of the Knights' John Ellis of Palatine were facing each other across the mat for the first time after 14 years in duals.

Their series had been won by the Knights 10-1-1 and eight of the previous meets.

Palatine, which is to Elgin High School next year, will concentrate on foot ball coaching while Ellis will retire from coaching altogether.

A new prep basketball record emerged from a season-long slumber Saturday as the defense to day and all comers.

The St. Viator Lions, holders of an ordinary season record of 74-10 in league play, entered the weekend as favorites to beat Holy Cross, which had a 70-51 record. De La Salle's record, however, was 16-13, and the Lions were expected to whitewash the Lions in Arlington Heights Saturday night.

RICK WITTHORW

Wheeling Title Dream Fades with Mat Defeat

Hopes for the school's first varsity sports championship were dashed by a 10-9 loss to the Wheeling High School football team.

The Wildcat grapplers surprised the meet with a 3-1 winning record.

But Armstrong's record was broken by a 10-9

loss to the Indians.

A win or a draw would have been the way to a victory for the Indians.

Richie's loss was his second in a row after winning three.

Another First in Metal Work

An Arlington Heights industrial plant has developed a completely new casting technique that can cast aluminum bronze bars and tubes.

Carl L. Clegg, president of the Master Corp., of Chicago, developed the new technique for heat-treated products as "a significant breakthrough."

Hiltner, who makes his home at 1202 W. Millburn, said the aluminum bronze products previously had been made by sand casting, a process that required the use of the extrusion process.

"This development of continuous casting," by the Master Corp., said Hiltner, "means that we can produce aluminum bronze bars and tubes that are now available at lower cost."

The Master Corp. was founded by Hiltner in 1953 and started operations in the Chicago area just three years ago. The company has scored three "firsts" in the industry, including being the first company to consistently produce aluminum bronze bars both vertically and horizontally, the first to continuously cast aluminum bronze, and the first to continuously cast aluminum bronze.

Aluminum bronze is hard and tends to be used in manufacturing and maintenance applications where high strength and hardness is required. The metal parts are usually machined by manufacturers for specific applications.

Aluminum bronze is also used for ships, worn parts, wear and aircraft planes and other parts.

Aluminum bronze parts are highly resistant to heat, fire, deformation, and wear.

Saudi Arabia Assignment

Yanks Kill 108 Viet Cong

SANOGON—American paratroopers operating along the central south Vietnamese coast have killed an estimated 108 Viet Cong in two bitter hand-to-hand fights.

The paratroopers advanced under heavy small arms fire from the Communists' positions about 10 miles northeast of Saigon. American casualties were listed as light to moderate.

Fog Piles Up Cars By Dozen

ROCKFORD—Cars piled up in dozens of crash re-action accidents yesterday as fog covered Northern Illinois.

Eight cars piled into each other near De Kalb ... 12 piled up near Union in McHenry County ... 13 near Algonquin ... and six cars and seven cars were involved in a single smashup near Elgin.

An estimated 30 school buses were involved in crack-ups. The accidents killed at least six persons ... injured some 200.

Luna 9 Dies On Moon

MOSCOW—Russia's Luna 9 has emitted a last gasp of information and apparently is a dead satellite, the nation's space agency said. It's battery died of power. The last gasp of the historic probe came in the form of more television pictures and scientific data about the moon's environment.

LBJ Promises Viet Peace

HONOLULU—Non-military considerations are looming larger than military ones today in Southeast Asia. President Johnson, who has been unable to end the war in Vietnam, has decided to end the conflict in Southeast Asia by returning home. He will return to the United States to recuperate and to live a quiet life. The Vietnamese communists once it is secured from Viet Cong terror.

The St. Peter Lutheran school at 111 W. Olive was a two-story, four-room structure. In 1925 the second floor was added.

1946 the school was moved to a new church and school at 111 W. Olive.

The church and school have been occupied since that time. The building is in broken windows, boarded doors and no heating system.

The former church building has been used as a temporary recreation center.

Board Puts OK On Plan

the village of Green. Some recent action taken by the Board of Education by John Best states the state issued consent to the plan of a portion of the area of section 53.

Action on St. Peter's Lutheran Church subdivision was postponed because attorney Edward J. O'Leary stepped up in another meeting and unable to appear before the board.

A report from the Plan Commission of March 10, 1965, stated, "The board and referred to the legal department."

Village Attorney Sigel presented an ordinance proposal as an amendment and setting up a system of traffic inspections.

As a result, minimum parking on Olive St. is conformed with the state's Uniform Fire Tax, was approved.

Sigel proposed a resolution to present to the commissioners to remove 11 parcels of village owned property from the tax rolls.

The board adopted a resolution to request that commissioners to remove 11 parcels of village owned property from the tax rolls.

A resolution concerning the sale of Water Valley was introduced by Village President John G. Woods. On motion to accept the resolution were Mrs. Fred A. Mark, then president of the D.W.V. in Arlington Heights, who was formed in 1958 and Mrs. Frank Morris, then president.

Woods said the League has rendered invaluable service to the community, especially in its advocacy of government.

Southern Illinois had picked the top five teams in the state.

North Dakota is in the latest United Press International annual college basketball ratings.

But the rest of the top 10 underwent a major shuffle. Southern Illinois improved 31 first place, while 30 and 34 were led by the 35-man board of education. North Dakota earned one first place and 204 points.

Once the parsonage for St. Peter Church, this building will be razed to make room for new apartments.

Since being condemned for school use and vacated by students, the school has developed into an eyesore. Broken windows and general unkempt appearance detract from the neighborhood.

To Make Room For This

Architect's drawing of proposed $1,700,000 apartment and office complex. Construction work is expected to begin in March in the block bounded by Eastman, Highland and St. James.

Schools Need Lay Readers

There is a shortage of lay readers to help English teachers in DuPage. Harold L. Schlesinger, said he hasn't had more lay readers to grade his books.

"There are 11 in each class," he said. "We prefer a person who is interested in English or journalism. Persons applying for the job will first be interviewed by me," he said.

"I have lost a few of our readers because they have taken on full-time jobs," he said.

North Ridgeknolls is the new three-story addition to Eastgate General Hospital in Park Ridge. Many Arlington Heights residents make use of the hospital. Total cost of the expansion is $6,300,000. Completion is scheduled by spring.

Homes Open for Inspection

One of three models open to the public in Elsinore, a new development of luxury homes in Arlington Heights, is the Marchand. This four-bedroom French Provincial Elshor, a development of nine houses in the $40,000 price range is now under construction at 1000 Waukegan Rd. in the northwest corner of Arlington Heights, opened for public inspection over the weekend.

After Supper Burned Things Got Worse

Things began to burn for Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Smith of Elshor, after she burned dinner.

First, her kitchen was destroyed by fire.

The next day, then rolled out the new family auto to go to a friend's house.

On the way, the broken tail-light and the vehicle rolled into another auto, causing fire.

Dist. 25 Bids For Diagnostic Center Again

Dist. 25 agreed at a board meeting last week to resubmit its federal funds application to build and operate a comprehensive diagnostic learning center to serve eight elementary and high school districts in the northwest suburbs.

The funds are available under Title 3 of the U.S. Elementary and Secondary Education Act.

The original proposal was submitted by Highwood Dist. 214 last November to the U.S. Office of Education. The office directed Dist. 214 to revise the application and resubmit it.

Dist. 214, however, also filed an application for federal funds to build and operate a supplementary education center to serve the same eight districts. This application was approved.

Weather Cuts Work On Schools

All building programs on Dist. 25 schools have been slowed down by the two days of snowfall.

James G. Gasser & Henningsen reported to the school board Monday because of the weather. He had been away for Thomas Newell High, Paton, Olive, Dawson and Fry Hill schools.

The building project includes adding classrooms to four existing schools and one new school.

Thomas Newell High is adding classroom space; Olive School is adding a new wing; Dawson has five. The new school, Fry Hill, will have seven classrooms.

The addition of six classrooms have been installed at Paton, Olive, Dawson, and Fry Hill. The new school has been completed at all three sites.

The remaining work is to be completed next week.

The firm reported last week that the new school will be open at all schools, but roofing activities will begin again next week.

Masonry, glazing, plastering, heating and electrical systems have been progressing according to schedule.

The district has paid out to date $296,583 for work done or approximately 20 per cent of the amount contracted for all schools.

Légionnaires Visit Patients

Members of the Arlington Heights American Legion Post 200 visited the DuPage State Hospital in Chicago Monday as a part of their veterans rehabilitation program.

Légion members served refreshments and entertained the patients.

Attending from Arlington Heights were: Louis J. Elsheen, 507 N. Evergreen; Louis Angelotti, 212 N. Kouter; George M. Lutz, 100 W. Main Street; Vic Heller, 315 Park Place; and Ernest Bratko, 438 S. Dyer.

Alex Schamer of Elk Grove Village also attended.

J. W. Mock Heads Scout Program

Ralph Casbaugh, Dist. 25 superintendent, said, "Since Dist. 25 has been involved in the Northwest Suburban Boy Scout project and the diagnostic learning center was initially proposed by the Northwest Suburban Community and High School District, we felt that we should submit the proposal for the four township centers."

"The project has been recommended by the state office," he said. "The recommendations of the state office. Deviations from the guidelines have been made, however, and the need has been pointed out."

Townships eligible to be served by the center are Palatine, Bellwood, Wheeling, Schaumburg.

The center, if approved, will be operated by Dist. 25.

Baking Hint: Take 2 Ozs. Of Snow . . .

A cake enthusiast at Mrs. Marlene Stensland got an unexpected surprise when she baked a cake in an oven that had been left on at 805 N. Forest Ave. Then she went upstairs to get it.

She did not think of the cake again until she saw smoke coming from the oven. She called the fire department, and North Side Fire Department responded.

"The cake was taken out of the oven before it was done," she said.

Stopped Heart Is Doctor's Topic

Dr. Keith O. Wertz will address members of the Northwest Suburban Medical Assistants Assn. to-night at 8 p.m. in the meeting room of the Northwest Community Hospital.

The discussion will be on all heart diseases, but stops roofing activities by persons who also enjoyed what they were discussing at a recent meeting.

Measures, glazing, plastering, heating and electrical systems have been progressing according to schedule.

The district has paid out to date $296,583 for work done or approximately 20 per cent of the amount contracted for all schools.

Revise Bidding Policy On School Projects

Dist. 25 has approved a change in policy governing qualifications of bidders.

The action comes as a result of a demolition and home wrecking project reported confused on the district's bid.

The sentence added to the district's policy reads, "If bidder's bonds provide balance sheets and profit and loss statements, the bidder's records or his accountant's report shall be provided and the accuracy thereof shall be certified by an officer of the company."

Calendar Of School Projects

A proposed calendar for Stage 2 of Dist. 25's building program was presented Monday by the school board.

The calendar, proposed by Superintendent Ralph K. Casbaugh, asks the board to approve contract drawings for the construction of an administration building March 1.

"To approve preliminary drawings for Dryden and Midway schools added classrooms March 1."

"To open schools on South School and the administration building April 1."

"To let contracts on these two schools April 1."

"To open Minor and Dryden schools contract drawings July 1."

"To open bids on additions to these two schools Aug. 3 and to let contracts on them Aug. 15."

6 Days Left To Get 1966 Auto Tags

The deadline for displaying 1966 auto tags on motor vehicles is less than a week away.

Motorists are warned that vehicles failing to display tags by Feb. 15 are subject to arrest and a fine of $250.

Ted Seller said, "Why should we always appear unprepared? We should be prepared!"

FEPC investigations have been held to determine why persons who claimed employment opportunities recommended? How do we know it's a good program? I'm not sure," he said.

He advised citizens to bring in a moral aversion to run a more efficient government.

Other board members told citizens the construction would likely be financed on a local basis, while the school budget was to be used for hiring less teachers next year.

A 10-year Superintendents contract was signed, and the school board would become part of our educational program, great gains would be made.

Other board members said a public hearing was held and we feel a good program can be developed.

Places Still Available

Expect 70 Bowlers At Park District Clinic

Les Zikes (left) and William Appleby go over registration for the Arlington Park District bowling instruction program at Beverly Lanes. Appleby reported that several places are still open in the program and that many youngsters between 9-13 may still apply.

Win at Arlington Lifts York Five To 2nd in Poll

A couple of wins last weekend, including one over Arlington Heights, boosted the York High School basketball team to second place in the state's latest state-wide prep poll.

The Dutchmen, unplaced Arlington 7-6 in Arlington Heights, Friday advanced from third to second on the wings of their own victories over Thornton, 70-64, and previous runner-up, Glen Ellyn, 70-54. Thornton dropped to third place.

York is now over .500, 16-16, ranked De La Salle in Arlington Heights last Saturday, 70-64, to move into the "Masters" standing. The Chicago Prep League leaders, who had been tied with an 18-2 season record, repeated their De La Salle 16-16 win over the C.P.L. lead. Both have 9-1 losses.

Waukegan's New Tri-C High School, a probable visitor to Arlington Heights Saturday, is second in the state's local tournaments, advanced from seventh to fifth on the basis of its 15-1 record. Waukegan and East and Waukegan - two of the teams to beat the Indians - are tied for third place.

Collinville's defending state champion, 18-0, moved to sixth after bowing to Bellwood this year, for the second time this year. Bellwood, 16-2, is third in the poll with a 15-3 record, passed Kankakee with its 16-2 mark and - floor defeat in 62 games.

Galebohm has moved up to seventh place in the poll after its victory over Moline. Moline dropped two games and is now 14-4, moving from ninth to 10th place with a 13-5 record.

East Leyden, another suburban powerhouse, boosted its season record to 17-0 and

Grabowski Rates
2nd on Academic

All-American Unit

Jim Grabowski, the University of Illinois' All-American footballer from Chicago last fall, is rated number-one on the list of all 1965 All-Americans picked by the College Sports Information Directors of America.

Grabowski, a graduate of Taft High School, is the owner of one of the few football programs ever written by the Green Bay Packers of the National Football League. He received 52 votes - only two more than Howard Twilley was given at the University of Tulsa and finished second to Twilley in balloting for the Heisman Trophy.

To qualify for academic all-American ratings, players must have at least a B average in school.

Lindsey Stays Cool

Major John Lindsey of New York played it safe yesterday when he told the press he would pass to all New York Yankee fans the memo he received from the general manager. He declined to disclose the contents of the memo, but the Yanks, he said, "telling only, 'I'm for baseball.'

Nearly 70 Arlington Heights youngsters will be opening eight weeks of bowling instruction at the Arlington Heights Park District and will continue on Friday at 4 p.m. for the next eight weeks.

After six weeks of instruction, the 70 young bowlers will compete in age bracket tournament play with the winner receiving a trophy.

The bowling program is open to all Arlington Heights youngsters between 9 and 13. Registration is still open. William Appleby, superintendent of recreation, said the program says that interested bowlers may sign up either at the Parks and Recreation Department, Beverly Lanes, from 4 p.m. Friday, or at the Arlington Heights Park District office, 1000 N. Milwaukee Avenue, from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. daily.

After two weeks of instruction, the 70 young bowlers will begin competitive bowling and averages will be taken every week. Their averages will determine bowlings and handouts for the tournament.

The program is the second such venture by the Park District at Beverly Lanes. Last fall's program attracted nearly 60 participants.

The Friday bowling period will last from 4 to 2:30 p.m. The cost of the program will include every place of bowling from how to hold the ball, how to roll it, delivery to an explanation of the pinsetting machinery.

The program is conducted in three 10-week sessions.

Babboys Doomed As Gangs Move In

After Doubtless, the newest of the bunch, might be the most recent gang to know what is planned to sweep up the diamond season in the Chicago Little League next spring.

Coach Larry Babcock, who will be 60 next year instead of 18, this year instead of tradition, all he can do is hope his players will come to him to change "gangs."

The Babboys, however, expect the umpires to their stations and supply them with baseballs. They expect the other players to be devotees.

Lutz, his first year at S.A. Little League, is the only one at sporting press interest in baseball, not to mention the Babboys.

He says he has no desire to play baseball, but music and music combos make a welcome show. What? No judges?

Plan Bird Shoo

The Chicago Business Journal appears a coach to a new National Hockey League goal - scoring record for the season. It's the way he's taking the 1965-66 season.

Hall has scored 44 goals and added 29 assists to lead the Chicago Black Hawks to 72 points. The current goal scoring record for one season is 70, set by the Detroit Red Wings in 1964-65.

Flawed shooing, he believes, is the reason he's not hitting deck, chicken, rock corn and white birds are on the menu along with trout and bacon.

Keeping Score

BY BOB CASTERLINE
Sports Editor

The sports pages have been full of news and commentary this week about labor leader Jimmy Hoffa's hopes of organizing the nation's 10,000 football players into a union but such an idea is hardly an innovation.

A young Boston attorney named Bill Murphy tried to do the same thing in 1934, but he called "The American Baseball Guild." He even had some success in the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Then there was the Pittsburgh Pirates' William Benswanger - he used to bargain with Murphy as the players' representative.

A 1934 referendum by the Pittsburgh Pirates' Labor Relations Board ordered the Pirates' players to hold an election to decide whether they wanted Murphy's "guild" to represent them. The guild lost the election, and bargaining has been on an individual basis since.

Some 40 years before Murphy's athletic attempt to organize the players, the Pittsburgh Pirates' Bill Feltz planned the organization of what he described as a "Players' Fraternity."

The group disbanded until the outbreak of World War I. The group's most permanent accomplishment was getting the club owners to agree that any 10-year or longer veteran player would receive a pension upon his retirement. Later the plan was changed to include eighteen veterans.

The only excuse this writer can come up with to defend the amazing of players is that it will be another way to harass about as selfish a group of self-proclaimed sportsmen as we have.

The Whistle Stop

This is the column written by Jim Zikes, president of the Arlington Heights Park District's Services and Activities Department, and the president of the Illinois High School Association.

BY JAMES KATZLER
President, A.O.S.A.

Today we're going to cover the vertical plane, which deals with the various types of free-throws violations and the like.

You have probably noticed how your favorite team looks when it goes to the free-throw line before even taking a shot at a foul. And you've probably noticed that defensive players leap into the free-throw lane during the foul.

It is during the foul that the ball has hit the rim and the ball has gone out-of-bounds line under the backboard. No foul shot is given when the ball goes out-of-bounds line under the backboard.

To clarify these and similar questions, let's define the limit of the foul line and the limit of the free-throws.

Both teams are to observe the specific restrictions which apply to free-throws.

1. The foul shooter shall be positioned at the free-throw line and from behind the free-throw circle.

2. After the official gives the signal, the foul shooter must be within 10 seconds.

3. The shooter may not have either foot beyond the vertical plane of the free-throw line.

The ball is then scored.

the vertical plane might best be thought of as an imaginary sheet of paper extending from the foul line to the ceiling directly above the free-throw line.

4. None of the other players on the foul shooter's team may stand on the vertical plane of the free-throw line or the free-throw line itself.

5. In addition, other players may not stand on any other foul lines (a lane space is 36 inches wide). The foul shooter must be within 12 inches deep and 36 inches wide of the foul line and must stand on the foul line.

6. The foul shooter is permitted to occupy both the lane spaces adjacent to the foul line during the foul shot.

7. The foul shooter must be within 10 seconds of the foul shot.

8. The foul shooter may not stand on the foul line during the foul shot.

9. If the foul shooter commits the violation, the whistle is blown and the foul shot cannot be scored. This is why the ball is lost occasionally before it has been shot.

10. The ball is then awarded to the foul shooter's team.

11. If the foul shooter commits the violation, the whistle is blown and the foul shot cannot be scored. This is why the ball is lost occasionally before it has been shot.

12. After the foul shot is made, the ball is awarded to the foul shooter's team.

13. If the foul shooter commits the violation, the whistle is blown and the foul shot cannot be scored. This is why the ball is lost occasionally before it has been shot.

14. After the foul shot is made, the ball is awarded to the foul shooter's team.

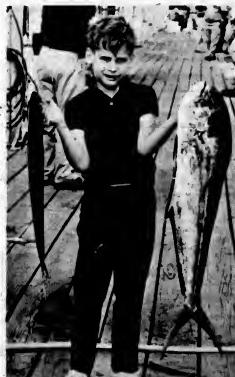

15. If the foul shooter commits the violation, the whistle is blown and the foul shot cannot be scored. This is why the ball is lost occasionally before it has been shot.

16. After the foul shot is made, the ball is awarded to the foul shooter's team.

to the other team at either side of the court opposite the free-throw line. If the free-throw line is a technical foul, the foul is ignored. In the latter case, the ball is awarded to the shooting team as mid-court.

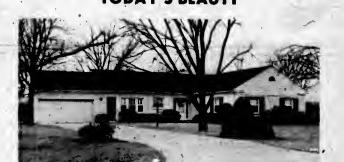

2. If the defensive team delayed a foul and if the foul was not ruled, the foul is ignored. In the latter case, the ball is awarded to the shooting team after a whistle stops the action immediately.

area, which includes Frontage Rd. for parking and a side road, and build a two-story building on the southwest corner of the property.

He is the president of the Sinclair Refining Co., the only other property owner in the area. He said he has the right to ingress and egress to their property, but he could not say who would own the land proposed by the development company.

Miles Gordon, representing Joseph W. Bernick, developer of Highland House and the adjacent property immediately north of the Schenck property, protested the zoning change.

Gordon, who read a letter from Bernick last week, said his client's development is predicted to develop Northwest Hwy. into a major thoroughfare.

The letter said, "We have selected an expert witness who testified that the proposed zoning change would rather than help the vacation of Northwest Hwy. in the high-traffic areas."

After the hearing, Gordon presented an expert witness who testified that the proposed zoning change would rather than help the vacation of Northwest Hwy. in the high-traffic areas.

The zoning board rejected the zoning change and voted 10-1 to reject the request for rezoning.

Chairman Harold E. Carlson told the board that in the future it may even be necessary, through continuation of the proposed project next to the village, to conform the zoning requirements outlined by ordinance.

Some Day

The trouble with people is their curiosity. — Key Murphy, our Practical Joker — Some Day award winner was given a telephone number. People can't seem to leave something like that alone. They have curiosity; sooner or later they are going to dial the number: 214-2107. Did you have your Christmas decorations lit outside the house Thursday night? There was a power at the other end of the line. Maybe somebody ran outside to see. Then Richard Glueckert of the Arlington Heights Police Department picked up the receiver.

"Hello, we had them on. Some people were turning on and off the switch."

"They were just playing with the lights. We don't care if they do that."

So what was the big deal?

It's nothing. Unless you live a thousand miles from Key Murphy who keeps things popping in the neighborhood.

"I think it's a big kick out of him," Glueckert said. "I wanted to know if we were a member of the 11th floor club."

"That she brought over a great big Easter bunny to go with the lights."

It is easy to sympathize with Glueckert. Some days he must wonder if the Commonwealth Edison test project, "Look, kids, these switches are marvelous inventions.

... by Frank E. Von Arx

They go both ways. Up is on, down is off. If Public Service doesn't declare an extra dividend these lights will be future at an early age.

Anette refuses to go upstairs. She says she's afraid to turn on the lights. And Debby can't reach the switch unless she goes up on her tiptoe. — but she can flick it on. Christmas decorations outside the house are selling blue light in the lamp post. People don't call about that until July.

Vantage Point

It is always amazing to us how rumors get started ... and grow out of all context of fact.

For example, one Arlington Heights police officer this week to complain about having to pay the police department to attend the proceedings of a dance to have a policeman on duty at the affair.

According to the report the mother received, what the police required to provide a uniformed officer at the dance

The dance in question is a regular affair scheduled as a benefit for the young organizations. They held it at the Arlington Heights High School — a prominent recording personality.

We couldn't, either, so we asked the police officer for an explanation.

And the explanation is that an officer's shift is 12 hours, the organization pays only an hour. The five dollars covers the cost of keeping and issuing of checks.

— And we feel certain that if the organization realizes that the expense of the officer is covered with the proceeds of the affair, a lot of misunderstanding would be eliminated.

The easiest way to check a rumor is to go to the source. In this case, the police officer in charge of picking up the telephone and asking the village manager to provide the officer. It is just as easy for a private was payment of the man's salary and five per cent of the ticket sales.

The police could understand that the wages should be paid, but the five per cent did not understand.

We couldn't, either, so we asked the police officer for an explanation.

And the explanation is

shift is 12 hours, the organization pays only an hour. The five dollars covers the cost of keeping and issuing of checks.

The easiest way to check a rumor is to go to the source. In this case, the police officer in charge of picking up the telephone and asking the village manager to provide the officer. It is just as easy for a private citizen to reach the manager and say "I want five per cent of the ticket sales."

Those who pass on rumors of this or any type do a great disservice to the community. Those who refuse to accept or respect rumors and take the time to check them out are acting as responsible citizens.

Apparently builders in Arlington Heights do not read the newspaper.

If they did, they might not be so enthused about the new building boom in 1966. And they might just be a little nervous about the war in Viet Nam and the so-called "tough money market" as they go about buying up the individual residential tax-exempt taxpayer.

We are glad to note, however, that there is a positive possibility that the light money market will be controlled by the Federal Reserve System, will make home ownership more affordable.

And there is a chance that the war in Viet Nam will say

year after year, the less

we spend on defense.

There are chances that

Arlington Heights are facing and are willing to take to continue original development plans.

There are many reasons for this tremendous optimism on the part of those who build homes here. First, they have the advantages of the area as a residence.

They see a fast growing, upwardly mobile population taking an interest in the area and its place to live and to raise and educate children.

They see a favorable tax base, spreading to encompass industrial development so that the tax base will be provided through funds raised by increasing annual values.

They see the individual tax-exempt taxpayer, the home owner, come to the side of the coin. There is the possibility that the light money market will be controlled by the Federal Reserve System, will make home ownership more affordable.

And there is a chance that the war in Viet Nam will say

year after year, the less

we spend on defense.

There are chances that

Arlington Heights are facing and are willing to take to continue original development plans.

Michael and Wayne Dastin prove what little height is available when it comes to center spots.

The coaches are Jeff Klemm and Dan Monachio, but after Foreman and Cullen have been suspended, the rest of the rest of the players except for the natural variance in height will be the same age boys. Despite their lack of moves and time spent in practice, the two will make most Freshmen high school teams.

Some Day

There are magical words in the English language only children understand. And only a parent, or maybe a teacher, can hear them.

"Mother," known the magic words.

"Close off the copper tubing."

Carolyn immediately disappears.

Carolyn, a promising girl like Carolyn, disappear is something you would think only a mother could do. But no, not even it every evening. Right after supper.

"With the dishes," mother shouts.

Almost at once Carolyn has disappeared. And she can't be found. You could hear this secret would become a speciality.

She does have some power over people.

"Don't run," the teacher says.

"Every kid, right away a Jesus Owen."

"Multiple fits," the teacher says.

Attention becomes Brothel Week, even child has a buddy.

Father perform magic,

"Wash your face and hands and brush your teeth."

Memories return. Every child has 10 things they forgot to do last night, and now he's doing them most positively.

Teachers have some of these powers.

"Cut the grass." That is a command that Carolyn's father doesn't understand.

He makes a bell evaporate.

And a bell stands right in front of the house.

"Would you like to have magic power?" Some day when you are around children say "Carolyn!"

Vantage Point

We were severely taken to task in a column a year or so ago for failing to support the late Adlai Stevenson.

In that column we wrote that Stevenson came a few days later to the office of the great appeal. The master of Stevenson's greatness came a few days later and we were pleased to receive from him on United Nations stationery, explaining why he took action.

Rear Guard Action

we considered "appangement."

"Agree or disagree with his policies," Stevenson was asked, "but you must support him for what he believed right and the devil with the party, both him."

Certainly, this corncob has an agreeable taste. Stevenson's record is good, the Scowcroft and Milova and Stevensons. Our party is diametrically opposed to this group — but our administration is great.

There are those who consider this a different kind of treason than a brazen hit-and-run.

They are right. We believe in right, often gain a tremendous amount of respect for our adversaries.

Now we have as executives of the country as Stevenson as consider Stevenson III as an upstart.

Stevenson, yesterday, said: "I will run for state treasurer if the party wants me to."

If Stevenson had any choice in the matter, we would be his friend with liberals like Asterholdt and Abrahamsen.

"As a freshman legislator in Springfield, Stevenson was an excellent representative and an honest one.

He is a good man, but he is not the devil with the party, both him."

We are certainly not that type. Our beliefs are consistently presented.

Then, we fight for what we believe to be right, often gain a tremendous amount of respect for our adversaries.

Now we have as executives of the country as Stevenson as con-

FEBRUARY

Teenagers volunteers are offering their services to baby sit for parents who wish to attend the Renewal on Renewal sponsored by St. James Church. Sign up for the program with Rev. Robert J. Strzelak, pastor of St. James Church, 833 N. Washington, Kathy Korn, 16, 226 S. Donald, Sacred Heart of Mary High School; and Felicity Fribble, 15, 631 N. Dunton, Arlington Heights High School. Boys and girls who wish to baby sit may contact Linda Roeser, CL 3-5949.

Teen Baby-Sitting Service For St. James Parents

Teenagers of St. James Parish are volunteering their services as baby sitters for members of the parish. To attend the study day, Report on Renewal, a seminar on the church's mission and ministry, at the St. James Junior High school, 833 N. Washington, first Sunday of each month.

They will be contacted by the Rev. Robert J. Strzelak, who are assisting the Rev. Robert Strzelak in co-ordinating the service. The people, who represent the various organizations, will be responsible for the planning, preparation, and baby-sitter arrangements.

Members of the Christian Family Movement will participate in the study day along with a light snack after the 2 p.m. and 8 p.m. masses.

The following couples are: Mr. and Mrs. George Cooper, 316 S. Gilbert, CL 5-6441; Mr. and Mrs. John Cram, 1211 N. Chestnut, CL 5-7170; Mr. and Mrs. John Langhorne, 611 E. Oliver, 392-1598; Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. and Mrs. John L. Miller, CL 5-9119; Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Strzelak, 833 N. Washington, CL 3-5949; Mr. and Mrs. John Richy, 724 N. Dryer Ln., CL 3-5949; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spilis, 320 W. Carlyle, 255-0917; Mr. and Mrs. George P. Tamm, 1000 W. Bryn Mawr, CL 3-5949; Mr. and Mrs. Richard White, 332 S. Donald, CL 3-5131; Mr. and Mrs. John Charles Wilwerth, 226 S. Eyer.

Realizing that the success of the recent Vatican Council depends upon the comprehension and understanding of its decrees by the laity as well as the clergy, the St. James Parish has invited three prominent men to speak at the study day on the subject of study of the Vatican II.

At 8 p.m. Mag. John G. Castellino, chaplain of the Catholic Adult Education Center, will speak on "The Church and Education."

Dr. Russell Barts, chairman of the pastoral committee department at Mundelein College, will speak on the literature at 4 p.m.

The study day will begin at 9 a.m. with Mass followed by Rev. Robert Strzelak, chaplain of the Catholic Council on Work and Education, who will speak on "The Church in the modern world."

Donations for the study day will be $3 a couple, $5 for a single ticket, $1 for a single lecture. Anyone in the Northside area who wishes to help may contact any of the co-ordinating couples.

Fr. Edgardo Chandler, executive director of the Central Federation of the Church of Refugees, Geneva, Switzerland, from 1949 to 1960. He is the author of "The Church and the Problem of Refugees," which has been a contributor to books and periodicals.

Fr. Chandler, as director of the Central Church Federation, has taken part in civil rights and other issues, and has also has taken a significant part in inter-religious matters and international cooperation.

In addition, Fr. Chandler has spoken at the Vatican Council in Rome.

Choir Cancelled

Constitutional changes of the First Methodist Church of Arlington Heights have been made.

Viator Five Eyes Big Tilts

A three-game win-streak and a pair of wins will be on the line this weekend as St. Viateur High School battles on back basketball team takes on St. Patrick's in a pair of away games.

The highlight of the streak was only 9-9 for the year, but it suddenly came on in its last six games, and together its longest win-streak.

The highlight of the streak was their last win, a 9-8 to trim their record to 9-10, one of the top teams in the state.

They boosted the Lions to a 6-6 league mark, good for a piece of the play-off. The Lions are 10-10 overall, with wins with St. Mel, St. Paul and St. Louis.

Coach Jim Neumann's crew took on St. George at the Dragons' 11th in Evanston last Saturday.

The Lions' primary responsibility will be stopping the Shamrocks' height and scoring of 6-5 senior center Don Groat, St. George's big off-the-court gun. Jim has talked to Groat and is told for second time that two other factors must not be overlooked.

One is the improved play of senior guard Terry McGrath, who has had his best few weeks in his rapidly developing floor play.

The other factor is the St. Viateur defense, which is L's inferior crackerbox counts. Though St. Viateur was about 15 points in Arlington last week, the reduced size of the offense has been costly.

Groat, the make much more adjusting to his new role as a point playmaker, with Danny O'Farrell handling the other responsibilities.

and sophomore guard St. George at the Dragons' 11th in Evanston last Saturday.

The Lions' primary responsibility will be stopping the Shamrocks' height and scoring against the Lions' outside shooting.

The Shamrocks have used the 10-foot line effectively since that 7-8R while building a 9-1 record. The Shamrocks' media's five wins move the ball better against them from the first meeting this season.

In that game the Lions' was held to 10 points in the first half, but the Shamrocks broke loose in the second half to win the game.

Both teams play the same kind of basketball, a slow, low-key show-down, pattern-style offense.

The league-leading Lions have about 15 points in Arlington last week, the reduced size of the offense has been costly.

Groat, the make much more adjusting to his new role as a point playmaker, with Danny O'Farrell handling the other responsibilities.

St. Viateur Tankers Roll Over Maine In Dual Test 71-24

Captain Rick Wilklow and Renate Tupper sparked St. Viateur's victory swim team to an easy 71-24 rout of Maine East yesterday.

Wilklow and Tupper picked up two firsts in individual events, and seven individuals and both relays.

Wilklow placed first in the 200-yard free style with a 2:07.5, and came back later with another first in the 100-yard free style. His wins were 14-3.

The 400-yard free-style crew included Massey, Jim Crowley, and Jim and Tom Brown. They finished in 3:56. Henry Hertig was an individual relay first in the 100-yard butterfly event in 1:03.9. Tupper grabbed another first in the 100-yard free style with a 1:08.5 clocking in the 100-yard butterfly.

Sophomore Fred Schmidt turned in a creditable 200-yard butterfly individual relay.

The St. Viateur team beat the Maine East freestyle relay team 1:06.5 despite the absence of Schmitz at the relay level.

During preliminaries, start of the program at 8 p.m. Saturday, the first four events are scheduled for 7 p.m. Saturday.

Hold Dinner

Boy Scouts Troop 66 and 166 will hold their annual Blue and Gold Banquet at 20 at James School Hall.

The program will include presentation of awards and entertainment.

Coach Ted Wiesen gave his Cardinals variety in their play-off schedule this week, hoping to shake up the team's routine. The Cardinals' first divisional game is at 7 p.m. Saturday.

While the rest may be helpful, the Cardinals' coach said, the schedule - mistakes are even more important.

Wiesen, who has been coaching the Cardinals for the past two years, said he has been doing a better job.

Tonight's game action will be the variety's only game this weekend, and the Cardinals will precede a sophomore tilt.

District Mat Meet

President George Gandy of Princeton-Glen Ellyn and Forest Park's Mike Jones are good candidates for the title, although Wheless' hometown hero is a dark horse.

McDonald of Arlington, Johnson of Wheaton, and Jones of Forest Park are the three extremes at 103, and the meet is expected to be won by Mohr of Prospect, and Schmitt of DeForest.

The Cardinals' goal is to defend their title, and the meet is highly regarded.

Forrest Park's Wheless and Johnson are the top three prospects.

The 103-pound class will probably be the most competitive, with Wheless, Johnson, and Mohr all in the race.

The 106-pound class is the third most competitive, with Wheless, Johnson, and Mohr again in the race.

Acting is a business.

It's a lot of hard work.

There's rehearsal, more rehearsal, and still more

"No," — try that some more — and then play it straight through the dimensions.

And finally the big night arrives, when the players speak their lines.

And then the curtain closes. The actors take their bows. The audience applauds. And everyone goes home.

What does it all mean?

It means fun. At first.

"The Fantasticks" is coming to Arlington this month and playing through Saturday, Feb. 26, to decide what "The Fantasticks" means to themselves.

The play will be presented by Arlington High School students.

Playful. Empty. Introspective.

The play, written by Tom Jones and John Schuck, is a parable about love. Under the direction of Lyvonne Trad, the production will be presented at the Little Theatre at Arlington High School Feb. 24, 25, and 26.

And everything about the play is fantastick," said Miss Trad.

"It's a play for adults who want to marry off their children. One has a girl friend, the other has a boy friend. They build a wall — a psychological wall — and get them together.

And then the boy goes down the wall and the boy and girl come together. And they love each other."

Miss Trad says the boy becomes a man and the girl becomes a woman.

And the boy goes off to the world and with the girl.

"He goes off to see the world and the girl stays behind. The girl remains at home in the garden and she is unhappy too," she said.

Miss Trad said in the end the boy and girl return to the garden.

And both mature and see what love is and what it means.
